The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 13. to Tuesday September 16. 1712.

Windsor, September 14.

THE following Addreſs from the Town and Corporation of Penzance, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Nicholls, Eſq; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Lanſdowne, Comptroller of Her Majeſty's Houſhold.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Merchants, Tradeſmen, and others, being the Majority of the principal Inhabitants of the Town and Corporation of Penzance (by the Lands end) in Your County of Cornwall.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

PErmit us, Your faithful and obedient Subjects, the Sound and Loyal Part of the ſaid Town of Penzance, (being the remoteſt of Your Subjects in the ſaid County of Cornwall) with Hearts full of Love, Loyalty and Duty for Your Sacred Perſon, to approach Your Throne with our humbleſt Thanks for Your Majeſty's unparallel'd Condeſcenſion, in communicating to Your People (groaning under the weighty Burthen of a lingering and unequal War) the happy Terms upon which a Peace ſo Glorious to Your Majeſty, ſo Advantageous to Your Subjects, and ſo Secure to all Your Allies, may be obtained; which great and good Work may Heaven enable You to bring to its wiſh'd Effect, and ſuch, our Hopes are, is nigh at hand.

We bleſs the Dawning of that Day that gave Your Majeſty Light into the dark and hidden Deſigns of the Enemies to Your Crown and Kingdoms; and we want Words to expreſs our particular Joy and Satisfaction, in that we find Your Majeſty's Heart ſo happily guided in a Choice of ſo Faithful and Able Miniſtry, as have with ſo great a Steadineſs and Courage purſued Your and their Countries true Intereſt.

And when we conſider Your Majeſty's (ever to be remembred) pious Regard for our Eſtabliſh'd Church, and the freſh Inſtances of Your Zeal for improving her, by ſo graciouſly extending the free Uſe of her moſt excellent Liturgy to thoſe of the Epiſcopal Communion in North-Britain, and Your peculiar Care for the Proteſtant Succeſſion, all ſo highly conducing to the Security of our Eſtabliſhment in Church and State, and the Peace, Happineſs and Tranquility of Your Kingdoms: We muſt own Your Majeſty the only and greateſt Bleſſing of this Age to Your People; and that that Bleſſing ſhall ever acquire our true Duty, Loyalty and Obedience, and oblige us daily to implore the great King of Kings long to proſper, and continue Your auſpicious Adminiſtration; and that, after a Completion of a happy Reign here, You may enjoy an eternal Crown of Glory.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Turin, September 10. N. S. A Courier arrived here the Sixth Inſtant from Mareſchal Dawn, with an Account that the Enemy had decamped that Morning from Oulx, and to deſire his Royal Highneſs's Orders thereupon, who immediately diſpatch'd the Contador General de Fontana, to concert with him the moſt commodious Place for the Subſiſtance of the Army. That Gentleman return'd hither Yeſterday with General Zumjungen, to inform his Royal Highneſs what Reſolutions they were come to in that Matter, and to receive his laſt Orders, ſo that we expect to hear in a Day or two, whether the Enemy will continue in a Body where they now are, or ſeparate for their better conveniency of Subſiſtance. On the Eighth Inſtant, being the Anniverſary of the Deliverance of this City from the Siege laid to it by the French in 1706, there were great Illuminations and Rejoicings here at Night. In the Evening his Royal Highneſs, with the Dutcheſs Conſort, and the reſt of the Royal Family, went to the Chapel of St. John, to ſee the Santo Sudario, which had not been ſhown for ſeveral Years before. The next Day, being the Nativity of the Bleſſed Virgin, was alſo obſerved as a Day of publick Thankſgiving on the the ſame Occaſion, and the Duke with all the Knights of the Annuntiade, the two Dutcheſſes, and the whole Court aſſiſted at the Chapel in the Cathedral Church, and afterwards made a Proceſſion thro' the beſt part of the Town, with great Solemnity. This Night was alſo concluded with publick Illuminations, and all other Marks of Rejoicings. Mr. Paget, Son to the Lord Burton, arrived here Yeſterday from Lyons, in his way to Italy, where he is going to Travel. He confirms the News we had received ſome Days before, of the March of four Regiments of Dragoons from Savoy for Catalonia; and that the Enemy talk of detaching Twenty or Twenty five Battalions for the ſame Country, which they are confident will be more than ſufficient, to oblige General Staremberg to retire under the Cannon of Barcelona. We hear that the Emperor hath given Orders to all the Governors, and other Military Officers in the Milaneſe, to obey Mareſchal Dawn; which Mark of his Imperial Majeſty's Confidence in that General, gives his Friends hope that it is a ſtep towards his being made Governor of that State.

Berlin, September 10. N. S. The King came hither Yeſterday from Charlottemburg, to view the Damage occaſioned by a Fire that broke out the Night before in the Magazines of Corn, one belonging to his Majeſty, and the other to the Town; the ſaid Magazines, and the Corn therein, to the value of Sixty thouſand Crowns, were conſumed; but how this Fire begun is not yet known, notwithſtanding the Diligence that has been uſed to diſcover it. Some are inclined to ſuſpect it to be a Contrivance of the Swedes, to diſappoint the Bargains that have been lately made, by ſome of the King's Subjects, for ſupplying the Muſcovite Army with Proviſions; and they think their Conjecture the more probable, becauſe this Town being ſtill under the aprehenſion of the Contagion, the King will be obliged to forbid the Exportation of Corn out of his Dominions, till the above-mentioned Loſs is repaired.

Bruſſels, September 19. N. S. The freſheſt Advices from before Queſnoy ſay, that the Trenches were not to be opened till laſt Night; the French having delay'd ſo long, in order to ſecure their Camp, which they have entrenched in the acceſſible Places. In the mean time the Confederates continue in their former Situation near Mons. On the 17th Fifteen hundred of their Horſe, under the Command of Count Altham, fell upon the French Foragers, beat the Eſcorte, and brought away Three hundred Priſoners.

Utrecht, September 20. N. S. Yeſterday Morning a Conference was held as uſual in the Town-Houſe, between as many of the Miniſters of the Allies as were at that time reſiding here. In the Evening the Counts Denhoff and Werthern, the former Plenipotentiary from the King of Pruſſia, and the latter from King Auguſtus, return'd hither from the Hague; as did Monſieur Marſhal Bieberſtein, another of the Pruſſian Miniſters, the Night before from Amſterdam; and ſeveral others, who have lately taken a turn to the former of thoſe two Places, are daily expected from thence. The Lord Viſcount Longueville ſet out from hence this Morning, on his way to England. Sir Robert Brown, Major-General in the Service of King Auguſtus, is come hither from the Hague, where he has been for ſome Weeks paſt, in order to ſollicite the Payment of Arrears due to the Troops of that Prince, which are in the Service of the States General.

A Letter Sign'd P. W. being ſent to the moſt Honourable the Lord High Treaſurer, wherein the Perſon who writ the ſame propoſes to diſcover great Frauds and Abuſes in the Salt Duties; theſe are to give notice, that in caſe the Perſon who wrote the ſaid Letter will come to the Commiſſioners of the Salt Duties, at their Office in York-Buildings, and make out what he propoſes, he ſhall have all fitting Encouragement.

The Receivers for the Lottery for 1800000 l. being the 10 l. Tickets, give Notice to ſuch Adventurers as have not paid in their Fourth Payment, that the ſaid Payment is to be made at the Bank of England, on or before Wedneſday the 24*th Inſtant; and that if the ſaid Payment ſhall not be made on or before the ſaid Day, the firſt Payment is to be forfeited by the Act, and no Ticket delivered to ſuch Adventurer.*

The Drawing of the Claſſis Lottery, being appointed by Act of Parliament to begin on or before the 30*th of this Inſtant September; all Perſons concern'd are deſired to repair to the Bank of England, and take out their Tickets forthwith.*

The Commiſſioners for Victualling Her Majeſty's Navy give Notice, that on the 19*th Inſtant in the Forenoon, they ſhall be ready at their Office on Towerhill to receive Propoſals, and treat with ſuch Perſons as are willing to ſerve Oxen for Sea Store at the Port of London, for the Service of Her Majeſty's Navy; and on the* 24*th Inſtant, for Oxen and Hogs, to be ſerv'd at the Ports of Portſmouth and Plymouth.*

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt-Indies do hereby give Notice, That a General Court of the ſaid Company will be holden at the Eaſt-India Houſe in Leadenhall-ſtreet, London, on Friday the 19*th Inſtant, at* 10 in the Forenoon, the ſame being a Quarterly Court. That a General Court of the General Society will be holden at the ſame Place, at 11 a Clock the ſame Day